“Access to Arts Carnival!!”

3rd September 10am-4pm Greenfield Valley Heritage Park Holywell

Thanks to The North Wales Arts Council, Vision Support will be holding a spectacular Arts Carnival this weekend!! Come and join Radio Glan Clwyd at the event with a host of activities on offer. The day will include a special performance by The North Wales International Music Festival, Creepy Crawly shows, Victorian Farmer's Wife cookery demonstrations, Circus Workshop, An Audio Tour of the Heritage Park, "Storytelling" in the children's tree house, African Drums, Pottery demonstrations by The Charity's Patron Bev bell-Hughes, Bouncy Castles, lots of craft workshops and face painting. The Carnival is an ideal day out for those living with sight loss and their families, encouraging everyone to explore all aspects of art. Vision Support will be holding a number of stalls giving information about the charity and services they provide, and there will be many exhibit stands with demonstration equipment for people living with sight loss. Lots of fundraising games will be taking place and there will be a guest appearance from Vision Support's President The Lord-Lieutenant of Cheshire David Briggs M.B.E., K. St. J. along with volunteer support from the Flintshire Lions. A BBQ and café will be serving refreshments throughout the day. The day is also being supported by BBC National Orchestra of Wales, Chester Racecourse, The Red House Restaurant Chester and Chester Boat River Cruise. Vision Support are recognised as the leading provider of local support and services to people living with sight loss throughout North Wales and Cheshire.
